

Proclamation of the
Midpeninsula Regional Open Space District
Given to Honor

Judy and David Daniels

WHEREAS, since 1991 Judy and David Daniels have supported and been involved with one of the most visible partnership projects undertaken by the Midpeninsula Regional Open Space District and Peninsula Open Space Trust with the development of the David C. Daniels Nature Center at Skyline Ridge Open Space Preserve; and

WHEREAS, Judy has volunteered as an Outdoor Education Leader and Nature Center Host for the District for 20 years, and David has volunteered as a Nature Center Host for 13 years; and

WHEREAS, Judy and David have graciously and enthusiastically welcomed thousands of visitors with their generous spirits to discover the natural wonders found within the Daniels Nature Center, in and around Alpine Pond, and throughout Skyline Ridge Open Space Preserve; and

WHEREAS, Judy and David have a special passion for connecting children to nature and outdoor enjoyment demonstrated through their many years of shared discoveries with the youngsters who have visited the Nature Center. Judy and David have facilitated experiences that include: wildlife observations, how to use a microscope, and first time up close encounters with a captive gopher snake; and

NOW THEREFORE, on this Fourth day of November 2015, the Board of Directors of the Midpeninsula Regional Open Space District unanimously and wholeheartedly recognizes Judy and David Daniels for their support of vital environmental education efforts and for their dedication to the District's mission.
